O love's best prime!

Mingled the dark and sunny hair, And heard the woning thrushes sing. O budding time!

Two wedded from the portal step: The bells made happy carolings. The air was soft as fanning wings, White petals on the pathway slept. O pure-eyed bride!

O tender pride! Two faces o'er the cradle bent; Two hands above the head were locked: They pressed each other while they rocked. They watched a life that love had sent. O solemn hour!

Two parents by the evening fire; The red light fell about their knees On heads that rose by slow degrees Like buds upon the lilly spire.

O hidden power!

O patient life! O tender strife!

The two sat still together there, The red light shone about their knees But all the heads by slow degrees Had gone and left that lonely pair.

O voyage fast! O vanished past!

The red light shone upon the floor And made the space between them

NEW GOODS FOR ALL

Can you guess how it is that the popular firm of

Seebold & Runkle

are selling the best quality of goods at lower prices than ever before? Why is it that new customers always come back to trade and old ones never go away? The answer is simple.

They Keep what the People want

and sell it at so small a profit that they realize only a little above wholesale prices. Small in their proffits and quick in their sales allows them to # Keep Pace with the times and the rapidly changing fashions. Their stock of goods is unsurpassed in the countycomprising everything in the line of

General Merchandise.

They always pay the highest cash price for produce and will give you more for your money then any other store in the county. They only ask a trial
